PLAYER'S

Contagious Diseases Fund.

RULES

Revised March 1930.

NOTE.

Every member is requested, on receiving a Copy of these Rules, to read them carefully, as ignorance of Rules is no excuse if Rules are broken.

VIOLATION OF RULES MEANS LOSS OF BENEFIT.

 The Factory Rules do not allow an employee to work during certain precautionary periods after he has been in contact with contagious disease.

RULES.

1.—That this Fund shall be known as “PLAYER’S CONTAGIOUS DISEASES FUND.”

2.—Its object shall be to relieve members during the Firm’s period of suspension, excepting when the patient is kept at home, when he shall receive pay for the official periods only viz :—

DIPHTHERIA AND SCARLET FEVER	7 DAYS

TYPHOID FEVER 	21 ,,

3.—Members themselves suffering from contagious disease are not eligible for relief from this Fund, (theirs being cases for their ordinary sick societies) except as provided for in Rule 4.

4.—A member having been in an Isolation Hospital himself for a contagious disease, shall, on his discharge, be treated as an ordinary contact case under Rule 2, providing he makes his claim within 10 days of his discharge from hospital.

5.—The subscription shall be one penny per week and shall be collected every 4 weeks.

6.—Any member who is two payments in arrears shall be out of benefit, any member three payments in arrears shall be excluded after being notified by the Secretary.

7.—The benefit shall be 10/- PER DAY, not including Sundays

8.—A Doctor's certificate must be produced.

9.—New members shall be admitted up to the age of 18, on payment of an entrance fee of 1/-. After that age the entrance fee shall be 2/-. They shall come into benefit four weeks after becoming clear on the books.

10.—Members leaving the firm shall have their share of the funds returned to them, if deceased to their next of kin.

11. The business of the Fund shall be carried on by a Management Committee, with the President, Treasurer, and Secretary, all of these to be elected annually at the General Meeting. They shall settle any disputes or any question as to the meaning of these Rules or for which these Rules do not provide. Their decision to be final.

12.—Any member not satisfied with a decision of the President, Treasurer, or Secretary if he can obtain the assent of any two members of the Committee, shall have the right to have a meeting of the Committee called.

13.—The books shall be audited at the end of the books year by two Auditors, elected at the General Meeting. The senior auditor shall retire each year and not be eligible for re-election the following year.

14.—The Secretary, Treasurer and Auditors shall be paid for their services. The salaries of all paid officials to be fixed by the Annual General Meeting.

15.—No dividend shall be declared except by the Annual General Meeting.

16.—Every member shall have a first copy of the Rule Book free of charge.

17.—Should the funds be so low as to be insufficient to meet the demands made upon them, the Committee shall be empowered to make a levy to meet the same.

18.—The Books shall be closed for subscriptions on the Tuesday following the day on which they become due.

19.—An agenda for the business of the Annual Meeting shall be provided for each member of the Committee or Collector at or before the meeting.
